ROUTE DESCRIPTION Updated 29th July 2022

Q1 At the first blue information board on left, by a metal gate (Whitepits) what amphibian is described?

Q2 On the door of the Coastwatch Station, what is the “What3words” location listed?

Continue straight on and turn right at the path junction down to Quarry Pond on tarmac path. Continue straight on to the end of the headland where there are fine views.

Q3 How many beach huts are carved into the rear of the right hand bench in front of you?

Follow the path round to the left and descend steps down to the beach, Keep to the right of the beach huts and continue straight on.

Continue straight on and approx. 1km after joining the beach, turn left after the Lifeguard Hut onto a gravel path. Keep to the right of the Black House.

Q5 At Black House Holiday Apartments, what kind of knot is on the door?

Continue straight on the harbour side of the beach huts, passing the Beach House Cafe on the left and the ferry pontoon on the right. Turn right before the land train stop with the Nature Reserve ahead, cross the bridge onto the beach and after approx. 400m take the track on the left between 2 wooden benches.

Through the gate, past the information boards and through a further gate where a track joins from the left*. (If the nature reserve is too muddy or impassable due to the tides return to the land train stop and turn right and right again to follow the path before the steps and rejoin at *).

Turn right on track towards the Visitor Centre in approx. 600m. Just before the Visitor Centre take the diagonal path opposite through gorse. Cross the tarmac track and go through the small gate (not the 5 bar gate), diagonally right and continue straight on via another gate.

After approx. 500m, take the bridge signposted "Stour Valley Way". Continue straight on via a gate and paddock, keeping to the right hand edge. In approx. 120m turn right, then path bends to the left, go through gate. Continue to follow path past buildings to gravel track and river. Through the recreation ground and continue straight on with river on right until you reach the tea rooms (clock on building).
