ROUTE DESCRIPTION (Updated 20th September 2019)

With the information centre behind you and facing the Lake, turn Left down Glebe Road with the Lake on your right. After 300m, and just past Windermere Quays visitor centre on your right, take the Public Footpath sign posted to Cockshott Point. Follow the path keeping the Lake on your right. At metal gate, go through and turn right, and follow the signs for the ferry.

Q1- At slipway on Windemere Ferry sign what is the number for the Ferry Captain?

Board the ferry and cross Lake Windermere as a foot passenger. (Every 20 mins at a Cost of £1.00 each way for 2019).

After crossing Lake Windermere, walk along the road for approximately 140 metres. Take footpath on the right through gate signpost Hilltop 2 miles, and follow along the side of the Lake for approximately 150m to go through the gate, turn left on road passing NT cafe on right. After approximately 100m go through the gap in the wall on the right, sign post public footpath Hilltop and Far Sawrey. Ahead to " The Picturesque" information board.

Q2 - On the board what view is depicted by William Green's 1815 painting?

Walk up the path to a ruined Claife Viewing Station, the building was a "Café cum View point" called a Station for the hundreds of Victorian visitors. Watch out for Red Squirrels in this area.

Retrace steps back down 50m and take path down slippery steps sign post Hilltop, Near and Far Sawrey. After the descent follow the path right, through the NT car park, keeping the road on your left and follow the public footpath sign post Near and Far Sawrey and Hilltop. Go through the gate, cross the road with care, and continue on the path in the same direction with the road now on your right. As you come to the end of this path continue on the road for approximately 100m, turn right at footpath sign post Far Sawrey. Follow the track, go ahead through kissing gate, another gate and then through another old metal kissing gate. Join the lane via the path and continue in same direction passing cottages, (looks like private property) ahead to road and turn right.

left. Ignore private signs this is a permissive path. Continue on this path to the Lakeside and then with the Lake on your right continue to the road.

Turn right on road and return to the ferry. Cross, and re-trace your steps through the car and boat park. Do not turn left through metal gate to follow the lake shore path but go ahead on path between fences to road. Cross the road and ahead on Rectory Road, eventually passing the mini-golf and tennis courts on left to return to the Lake side and information centre.
